HANDS ON NETWORK

Volunteer Alexandria

Volunteer Alexandria, a 501 (c)3 nonprofit organization, is your Community Resource for Volunteerism. Since its founding in 1980, Volunteer Alexandria has served as a link between individual and group volunteers and area nonprofit organizations and City agencies in need of support. Volunteer Alexandria works in partnership with nonprofits, government and the business community to inspire people to volunteer, and to engage volunteers in activities that in turn strengthen our community.

Volunteer Alexandria volunteers in collaboration with our RSVP volunteers, Red Cross volunteers and MRC (Medical Reserve Corp) volunteers will educate and prepare low-income individuals and families to respond to various disasters by distributing informational kits. The project will be 3 hours long and it will consist of two parts: the first part will involve a volunteer training on the importance of being prepared while affiliated and unaffiliated volunteers will assemble the informational kits; the second part will consist in the distribution of the kits to over 500 households in the West End area of Alexandria.
